We're working on our powerful writers stories . We are doing our personal narrative and our how to books. We are on our 2nd story. We are also getting ready to go on a field trip on May17. We are going to a bakery. We are also getting ready for a math test.

Kelly and Jena Room 24, Grade 5

The fifth graders are going to go to camp very soon, and are a little excited; at least it gives us something to look forward to.

School is almost over and everyone is probably making plans for the summer.

We've been doing math, plus and minus. We know how to read. We went to see the Pied Piper of Hamelin at the puppet theater. The snake ate a lot of the rats. He stuck his tongue out, and the snake ate the man!

Hannah & Isaiah
Room 15, Grade 1

Hi we are Hannah and Isaiah. We went to the Northwest Puppet Theater and we saw the Pied Piper of Hamelin. It's a story of torturing dogs and eating the cats. They were eating everyone's food too. In a part a girl hits a rat with a hammer. Because it was trying to take the cheese. There was a really heavy hammer and they kept smashing the guy with the hammer. Then the 2nd one kissed the guy. Don't write this you beast, then the snake kissed the guy again. Only 2 times. The 3rd time he gets eaten by the snake and the guy said "Hey let me out let me out!"

Hi, I am Casey and I am and Jaylynn. We just finished The WASL. Jaylynn thinks it was easy in the math session. The reading session, she feels that it was hard. Casey thinks it was easy for the math session and hard on the reading session. The WASL was fun for Casey and Jaylynn. Casey thought before we started it was going to be hard. Jaylynn thought the same thing as Casey.
